Residents' plea after another A1307 death

Heading north for charity run

KEEN runner Jayne Nunn is heading north of the border to take part in the Edinburgh Marathon next month. Jayne, 41, is the ladies captain of Haverhill Running Club and is hoping to encourage more women to join the club. The mother-of-three lives at Helions Bumpstead and has been running for the past seven years. She started off taking part in Race for Life events and began running with the same group, which still train together now. She completed the London Marathon two years ago and has crossed the line in nine half marathons. On May 24, Jayne will take part in the Edinburgh Marathon and is hoping to raise as much money as possible for Cancer Research UK, a charity close to her heart as a friend is currently suffering from breast cancer and receiving chemotherapy treatment. Jayne said: "I did the London Marathon for a diabetes charity and I did not just want to run this one, I wanted to do it for a good cause and this one is very close to my heart. "My training has been going well and I really want to thank my husband, Richard, who has been coming out on his bike with me every Sunday for between 14 and 20 miles." Anyone who wants to support Jayne's efforts can collect sponsor forms from the running club at Haverhill Leisure Centre or contact her through the Weekly News on (01440) 703891.

RESIDENTS who live along the killer A1307 have renewed their calls for action after another life was lost on the deadly road.

The death of a lorry driver on Tuesday morning has prompted two concerned residents to build a fortress around their home on the A1307 in a bid to protect themselves.

Peter and Evelyn Ward have been campaigning for a hazardous traffic island to be removed from outside their home on the A1307 at Little Abington because they feared it could cause a fatality.

But highways chiefs did not take action and the lorry driver, from Trek Highways in Thetford, was killed when his road sweeper overturned at 8.45am, causing a car to swerve and plough through a garden fence.

The woman driver escaped uninjured.

Highways chiefs later drove along the road to look at possible safety measures after calls from residents.

The death was the latest in a series of crashes which have terrified householders.

Now Mr and Mrs Ward have resorted to drastic action and have vowed to build a fortress around their property. The elderly couple have already built a bank around their home.

TICKETS are still available for a big band night in aid of the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice Appeal on Saturday, May 11.

Haverhill Town Mayor Les Ager is donating the proceeds of his charity dance to the appeal, which aims to raise £40,000 so the hospice can provide services for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes.

The night, at the Haverhill Arts Centre from 8-11.45pm, will feature music from the renowned Galaxy Big Band. Tickets are £12.50, including a buffet and are available on (01440) 714140.

■ A major boost for our appeal, which this week stands at more than £8,000, comes from three ladies who call themselves Wickhambrook Charity Fundraisers.

The group, who has already raised thousands of pounds for the hospice and other charities over the past few years, handed over a magnificent £1,100 to the appeal and hope to raise even more over the coming months.

Roz Clarry, Linda Newell and Janet King raised the cash by organising dances, car boot sales and other events.

They will be holding more car boot sales in Wickhambrook on May 18, June 15, July 27 and August 17.

They are also organising a charity dance with 60s group The Fortunes on June 13.

■ Brownies in Haverhill did their bit by brewing up on Saturday morning to boost our appeal total. Members of the Haverhill Guiding Association demonstrated their expert tea and coffee making skills at the Old Independent Church Hall in Hamlet Road.

Homemade cakes were on sale and there was also an opportunity to talk to leaders and register for Brownies.

Will you help make a donation?

FREE advice on how to make a will is being put out by St Nicholas Hospice shops. Each event will have a qualified solicitor on hand to explain everything you need to know about drawing up a will and to answer your questions.

In Haverhill, the advice session takes place on May 8 with help from Julie Indaco, of Stevens Solicitors. You are under no obligation to make a will but should you wish do so several solicitors, whose details will be available at the information evenings, are offering to prepare one for you in return for a donation to St Nicholas Hospice, rather than charging their usual fee. For information about the event, contact Margaret

Lee at the hospice on (01284) 755000. The hospice is also holding several other evenings designed to discuss hospice services and ways of getting help. For information on these evenings call Jamie Winch on (01284) 715580.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An online donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhill-weeklynews which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Council concerns over meal changes

CONCERNS have been raised over changes to Haverhill's Meals on Wheels service.

The new contract, won by WRVS, formerly the Women's Royal Voluntary Service, will see the preparation of meals move away from the Haverhill Arts Centre kitchen to Bury St Edmunds in July.

But Haverhill Town Council is worried that the change is not in the best interests of elderly customers in the town.

The town council's clerk, Gordon Mussett, told the Weekly News that meals will take longer to get to customers and the quality of food will be affected.

Mr Mussett said: "The meals are currently frozen and reheated in the centre and delivered by volunteers so they are all delivered within 90 minutes of being heated."

"The new proposal . . . adds another 45 minutes to the journey, meaning that meals will be on the move for over two-and-a-quarter hours.

"Take into account bad weather or any traffic accidents on the roads between the two locations and this could mean further delays and the food being not as tasty when it is finally delivered."

Mr Mussett added: "We would prefer for the county council to keep the service here in the town so that those people who use the service and eat the meals will receive meals which are freshly cooked and are delivered on a good timescale."

Suffolk County Council said the new service will offer a better menu, all meals will be carefully cooked, heated and delivered hot and on time and the meals will be temperature controlled throughout their journey.

However the statement from the council and WRVS also said there may be one or two redundancies in Haverhill as part of the changes.

It states: "Both WRVS

and Suffolk County Council understand that these changes may cause some unrest with staff and volunteers, as it is inevitable that in order to expand and improve, some staff in Haverhill may be made redundant and some volunteers may find the change in premises inconvenient with regards to travel.

"WRVS is currently in the process of discussing with staff and volunteers options and arrangements for the future."

'Long term plan needed to end carnage'

Mrs Ward built the protective bank after a 40-ton articulated lorry collided with the island and jack-knifed across the road and into Mr and Mrs Ward's garden, three-and-a-half years after the same thing happened.

Mrs Ward, said: "A fireman told me that if I had not built the bank around my home the car and maybe the lorry would have ploughed into my home."

"This is the third time this has happened in as many months. We are frightened to drive here and are even scared to be in our own homes."

The latest fatality comes just weeks after 16-year-old schoolgirl Alice Westland was killed and hours after a summit on the "death road".

Councillors, highways chiefs, residents and the headteacher of Linton College, which has lost two schoolgirls to the road, met on Monday to thrash out a solution for the infamous highway.

It has claimed more than 20 lives in the last decade including those of two teenage girls – Alice Westland and Imogen Barker.

At the same traffic island, a 29-year-old woman from Haverhill made a miraculous escape.

She ended up in intensive care after her car collided with a lorry and was pushed against a tree at 1pm on February 9.

Her green Volkswagen Polo was sent flying into the front garden of a nearby home, where it was pinned against a tree by the Volvo truck. The A1307 is one of the region's most deadly roads – with six fatalities in two years.

It claimed the life of Peter Rogers, 34, of Chedburgh Place, Haverhill, when his Ford Transit overturned on December 1 last year.

He died near the spot where schoolgirl Imogen Barker, 15, was killed in February last year, weeks before her GCSE exams.

And Alice Westland, 16, was killed in March, just yards from where Imogen was killed at Cardinal's Green, ■ DEVASTATION . . . above, nearby residents Peter and Evelyn Ward are planning to build a fortress around their home to avoid injury. Below left, crews respond to a deadly lorry accident on Tuesday along the A1307.

Horseheath.

The meeting in Horseheath on Monday night was attended by parish, district and county councillors as well as representatives of Cambridgeshire Highways team.

Patsy Dell from St Edmundsbury District Council, Caroline Derbyshire, headteacher of Linton Village College, and Esther Cornell, from campaign group Access 1307, were also there.

South Cambs District Councillor Vicky Ford called for the meeting following the tragic death of Alice Westland. Horrified by the latest tragedy, she said: "It's ironic that after two hours talking about safety improvements another death has happened. The big problem remains that this rural road was never built for the huge growth of traffic."

"This road is just too dangerous. We need a proper long-term strategy for safety improvements."

"But there is very little money for this. We do have the £250,000 which will be spent in June at the bus stop where the girls died. But I can understand the frustration of residents in Little Abington."

A Cambridgeshire County Council spokesman said that the road was of the highest priority.

He said: "We have already spent hundreds of thousands of pounds in safety improvements. The problem with the traffic island is that there is a bus stop there, and school children need the island to safely cross the road."

"We have put in highlights for drivers that the traffic island is coming up. This accident is subject to a police investigation and we will be looking at the findings of the inquest to see if anything could have been done."

"We are very concerned about the accidents on the A1307 and want to see the road made safer."

Patrols stepped up after attack

POLICE patrols have been stepped up following an attack on a 15-year-old girl.

The Weekly News reported last week how a man grabbed the youngster at Foxburrow Close, Haverhill, between 9.30pm and 10.30pm on Saturday, April 19 as she was walking her dog and tried to sexually attack her.

The offender has yet to be caught but police have received several phone calls from members of the public and they have also increased patrols in the area to make people feel safe and for members of the public to approach with any information.

The police have renewed their appeal for the man, who was described as being of slim build and wearing tracksuit bottoms, a hooded top and white trainers.

Anyone with information should call Acting Sgt Kelly Waggett on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Police get ready to welcome booze ban

A TOWN centre alcohol ban comes into effect next week.

The Haverhill ban, which comes into force on May 8, is aimed at reducing anti-social behaviour and makes it an offence to drink alcohol in designated parts of the town centre.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council recently carried out a six-week consultation with local residents to find out their opinions on the proposed ban. It showed that 83 per cent of the 133 residents who responded were in favour.

When the ban comes into force it will allow police officers to confiscate and dispose of alcohol in both sealed and open containers. Anyone who refuses to hand over their alcohol when asked to do so could be arrested and/or fined up to £500.

The ban does not target everyone, however, as people will still be allowed to sit outside and enjoy a drink at properly licensed cafes, bars and restaurants.

The Haverhill ban will work in a similar way to a Bury St Edmunds by-law, which has helped to curb petty crime and vandalism in the town. The ban zone has also grown in size during the consultation period due to fears groups would be displaced from the centre of the town to drink in other areas nearby.

Councillor Sara Mildmay-White, the council's cabinet member responsible for crime and disorder reduction, said: "This ban is an excellent example of agencies working together to tackle concerns from Haverhill residents."

"It sends a clear message that we will not tolerate anti-social behaviour and we will continue to look at appropriate and targeted measures to protect the quality of life of all members of the community."

Haverhill Neighbourhood Inspector Adrian Dawson said: "The police, town councillors and the borough council have all received complaints from the community in Haverhill about people drinking in public and causing anti-social behaviour and intimidation to residents."

"The public has been consulted and there was overwhelming support for the alcohol ban. The police will therefore enforce the ban as part of the Safer Neighbourhood team ethos of listening and responding to local concerns."

What do you think?

Do you support the alcohol ban? Will it help reduce crime and anti-social behaviour, or simply push the problem elsewhere? New pre-school collects a cash boost for car spaces

BY Damion Roberts

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A PRE-SCHOOL is one of two projects benefiting from a cash handout.

Ketton Early Birds Pre-School, based at Kedington Primary School in Church Walk, Kedington, has received a grant of £4,790 from the Havebury Housing Partnership's Community Investment Fund (CIF).

The money will go towards providing car parking spaces at the new pre-school, which opened in early April. It provides pre-school facilities for children aged two-and-a-half to four years and a breakfast club, after school and holiday club for those aged up to nine.

Speaking about the cash injection, Christine Bowers, chairman of the pre-school's committee, said: "The pre-school has been running in the village for 40 years but up until now it has been held at the community centre so sessions have been limited to mornings only."

"The funding we have received from Havebury will help us to make the site more accessible for families in the village."

The chair of the CIF group, Chris Allen, added: "This project is just one example of the successful way in which the funding provided by the CIF is helping to support local groups and initiatives."

Another initiative benefiting from the CIF is a new credit union for Haverhill, which has been given a £5,000 grant.

The plan is to offer more affordable banking services to people who live or work in and around the town and the money will be used to support a development worker for the project.

Credit unions are financial, not-for-profit co-operatives owned and controlled by their members and this new project will allow members to regularly save small amounts of money and take out low cost loans.

Since the CIF was established in 2002, a total of £316,351 has been awarded in grants to support 126 community projects. This funding has also helped local groups and projects attract more than £4.5m in match funding.

Each year £50,000 is available in small grants to help groups and individuals with ideas which will benefit the local community.

Games day for rising sport stars

MORE than 300 children from across west Suffolk braved the elements to take part in the Suffolk Youth Games Festival.

Youngsters from middle and upper schools in St Edmundsbury turned up to compete in a wide range of sports, all with the aim of making the training squads for the 2008 Youth Games programme.

Sports on offer included athletics, badminton, basketball, girls cricket, girls football, hockey, tag rugby, table tennis and tennis.

The students also enjoyed a variety of skills practices in the morning followed by games and mini-tournaments in the afternoon.

They were nominated to take part by PE staff at their schools, and they will be offered routes into the local sports clubs in Haverhill and surrounding villages so they can continue with their chosen sport.

Matthew Mann, sports development officer for Abbeycroft Leisure, which helped to organise the day, said: "The children all thoroughly enjoyed their experiences and it will make for a much more open and competitive policy when it comes to recruiting each of the teams. All being well this should make for a well-attended and strong Team St Edmundsbury in the 2008 Suffolk Youth Games - but only time will tell."

Sign turns shoppers away, say traders

TRADERS say a barrier at the end of their street suggests they are closed.

Shopkeepers in Haverhill's Queen Street fear the barrier, put up between 10am and 4pm each day, will affect trade.

The barrier is to stop traffic using the road, but traders feel pedestrians may think it applies to them too.

Vickie Sackett, who runs the Bottom Drawer underwear shop, said: "It looks awful.

"We are trying to encourage people to visit this part of the town and this does not help. It looks like we are behind a barricade."

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Adrian Byford, who runs the Record Pedler shop, said: "It is not even a new sign. It does not look very nice. It is quite battered and looks like it has been used a lot before.

"The sign still blows over all the time like the old one did and we often see people come flying round the corner and crash into it.

"If they crash into this chain it could fly off and hit someone. It is more dangerous than before.

"There is not enough room to push a pram or get a wheelchair through on the pavement one side, so people have to cross over.

Picture: Keith Jones 480929.

"It makes it more difficult for people to walk down here and looks like the street is closed completely.

Paul Farrant, who runs the Zeiss clothes shop, said: "It is not doing any good for this end of the street."

A Suffolk County Council spokesman said: "We are responsible for restricting traffic in Queen Street. The barrier is used to ensure the safety of pedestrians.

"The council has an agreement with St Edmundsbury Borough Council to physically put the barrier across.

"As traders have expressed concern, both councils will work together to look into alternative arrangements to prevent any perception that the whole street is closed."

Day of fun at the pond

A DAY of bank holiday fun will help launch a newly restored pond in Haverhill.

The new pond at Castle Playing Fields received a major revamp – with new fishing piers, including some for disabled anglers, as well as a picnic area and new planting – after the Parkway Community Association won Lottery funding in a television poll last year.

The association led the project, with help from local schools, and will hold an official opening and fun day on Saturday from 10am to 4pm.

There will be a fancy dress competition, a dog show, dog agility team display, a display from Collette's School of Dancing, music from Haverhill Silver Band and much more.

Woman's death a 'tragic accident'

A WOMAN's death was accidental, an inquest has ruled.

Dr Peter Dean, Suffolk coroner, said Georgina Benson, 49, appeared to have died after falling down stairs at her home in Templars Court, Haverhill.

He recorded a verdict of accidental death at the inquest in Bury St Edmunds.

Her partner, Roy Thomas, 48, told police he found her lying at the bottom of the stairs when he came home from work. He was arrested over the incident.

Dr Dean said: "The police clearly wanted to be certain there was nothing untoward and investigated the circumstances fully."

Mr Thomas said he put Ms Benson into bed after he found her. He believed she had been drinking and put her to bed to sleep it off.

But, said Dr Dean, he did not know she had suffered a "significant head injury" and only later called an ambulance. Dr Dean said it was "a tragic accident."

FORSHAW Howard

May 6th, 1996.

*I have puzzled now for days and
just exactly what to say.
How to let you know
I miss you still,
Each and every single day.
Twelve years have passed so quickly,
It really is surreal.
But still I have the burden,
Of a heart that will not heal.
Constant in my head,
my heart,
It's where you will always stay.
And the comfort of you
being there,
Will never go away.
Love you*

FORSHAW Howard

May 6th, 1996.

*12 years have passed us by now,
Still the questions
remain the same,
Forever searching
the answers,
Trying to find something or someone to blame.*

*Yet we need not question
anymore,
As by now we know the truth,
God simply takes the 'best' ones
first,
For this we need
no proof.*

*So dear brother
watch over me,
And no matter where we go or what we do,*

*When it's my turn to follow you to Heaven,
I'd like a place for me next to you.*

*If tears could build a stairway,
And memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to Heaven,
To bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knows why.
My heart still aches in sadness,
And secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you,
No-one will ever know.*

Love, Denise

*Though your smile is gone forever,
And your hand I cannot touch,
I have so many memories,
Of the one I loved so much.
Your memory is my keepsake,
With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.
To your resting place I visit,
Place flowers there with care,
But no-one knows the heartache,
When I turn and leave you there.
All my love,

*Life has gone on without her,
But it will never be the same,
We hold her tightly within our hearts,
And there she will remain.
You never know the emptiness,
When you turn and she's not there,
Please put your arms around her Lord, And treat her with special care.
So Lord please take this message,
To our dear mum up above,
Tell her how we miss her,
And send her all our love.

Police chief hails fall in crime stats

CRIMINAL damage is down but drug offences are up in West Suffolk, according to the latest figures released by Suffolk Police.

Overall there were 19,907 offences committed throughout the Mid Suffolk area, which includes St Edmundsbury and Forest Heath districts, between April 2007 and April 2008, 629 fewer than the previous year.

But despite a drop in crimes such as criminal damage and violent crime, there were more incidents of drug offences and household burglaries than had occurred in the previous 12 months.

The overall reduction in crime in the western area is, according to the area commander Chief Superintendent Paul Marshall, the result of many changes overseen by the force, including

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

the introduction of Safer Neighbourhood teams and the restructuring of the force.

Chief Supt Marshall said: "All have been handled professionally and with dedication and commitment, and the success of the Safer Neighbourhood teams in particular is reflected in these figures.

"The number of offences committed in many categories is down. There were almost 180 fewer instances of criminal damage, which has been a priority for my officers and staff, and vehicle crime has also fallen by 120 crimes, a drop of 5 per cent.

"Both of these results mean we have reached the reduction target."

The force also saw a reduction in the number of violent crimes, with 25 fewer than the previous year, and put the increase in drug offences, which rose by 134 incidents, down to proactive work being done by the police, including carrying out warrants based on intelligence and using drug dogs in town centres.

The police have set their list of priorities for the next 12 months and these include promoting road safety through Operation Guardian, and the reduction of the number of household burglaries which were one of the few crimes to rise in 2007/08.

Another operation, Staysafe, will attempt to tackle violence in public places and is due to begin in May.

Chief Supt Marshall added: "Overall I am delighted with what we have achieved throughout 2007/08 and every member of staff here in the west will be striving to improve on that over the coming year."

Plea for motorcyclists to take care

MOTORCYCLISTS are being reminded to take care while driving this Bank Holiday weekend.

Suffolk Police say that with the weather warming up and an extra day off this weekend, this may be the first opportunity many motorcyclists will have to dust off their bikes and take them out onto country roads.

As part of the police's Stay Safe initiative, officers from the roads policing unit will also be taking to the roads to offer advice and guidance to motorcyclists.

During 2007 seven motorcyclists were killed on the county's roads.

■ COLOURFUL . . . Coupals Primary School pupils Irna Manguerra and Elesha Harrison, both nine, with Ethan Martin and Georgie Anker, both six, help Samuel Ward Arts and Technology students Lisa Perrett and Alice Collins, both 18, put the finishing touches on the mural. Picture: Keith Heppell 480192.

Painting pictures to get children reading

COLOURFUL murals can be enjoyed by children visiting the library in their primary school thanks to the artistic efforts of older pupils. Characters from well known books have sprung up on the walls of the library at Coupals Primary School in Haverhill as part of a joint initiative with Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College. The aim was to decorate the library walls and develop the school's mission to raise the profile and standards of reading. Year 13 students Alice Collins and Lisa Perrett, who are off to university in September to continue their studies in fine art and illustration, completed the first phase of the work in just three days. Charles Hardingham, headteacher at Coupals who engineered the project between the two schools, said: "Our library was not child friendly and did nothing to stimulate the want to read. Our library project will be developed in three stages, starting with our fantastic mural, then 3D characters will be added, culminating in an enchanted castle where children can sit and read. Lighting and attention to soft furnishing will be an important finishing touch. We are really grateful to the students."

‘Get real – use cloth nappies’

REAL nappies are being promoted as an environmentally-friendly alternative to disposables.

As part of Real Nappy Week, a variety of events took place across Suffolk and information stands were set up to educate and inform parents about the advantages of using real nappies.

Suffolk Real Nappy Network, a not-for-profit organisation which offers free and impartial advice and support to parents, teamed up with Suffolk County Council to argue for cloth nappies, which they both say are better for the environment and can save parents around £500 on a first child alone.

In a push to promote the real nappies’ green credentials, the county council said that a child in disposable nappies can create a tonne of nappy waste during their “nappy lifetime” and nearly three billion disposable nappies are thrown away in Britain every year, most of which are sent to landfill.

Eddy Alcock, the council’s portfolio holder for environment and waste management, said: “Parents can cut their household rubbish by up to 50 per cent, save money and help the environment by choosing reusable nappies for their children instead of disposables.”

For more information on real nappies call 0870 005 3985 or visit www.suffolkrealnappynetwork.org.uk

Confident Lee celebrates with trust award

A TEENAGER is celebrating completing a Prince's Trust team building programme at West Suffolk College. Lee Platfoot, 16, from Haverhill, was one of 10 team members who successfully completed the programme by carrying out a community project at Cangle Junction's housing and community centre in Haverhill. He helped paint a mural in the laundry room, redecorate the community room and improve the gardens. To fund the community project, the team raised £700 in just one week through a number of challenges, including a sponsored silence, a no smoking day and a slave auction. All the Prince's Trust Team members also completed work experience. Tutors said Lee lacked confidence but was keen to start the programme and show that he wanted to turn his life around. He developed excellent communication skills and thrived while working in a team environment. Lee also had a very successful work placement at Mitchell Motors in Haverhill, where he discovered he would like to enrol in a mechanics course.

■ TEAM PLAYER ... Lee Platfoot, centre, receives his award from the college's head of foundation studies Alan Cracknell, right, and Prince's Trust team leader Ola Anderson, left.

Appeal to help bolster stocks

PEOPLE are being urged to roll up their sleeves and give "a pint of the red stuff".

The National Blood Service traditionally sees a fall of up to 10 per cent in blood stocks during bank holidays, so to counter this they are encouraging more people to give to top up their blood banks.

Gareth Bell, the service's communications officer, said: "There is no doubt we will see a drop over the extended weekends but with the help of our wonderful donors we can ensure blood is still there for everybody who needs it."

The next session in Haverhill is next Wednesday at the Haverhill Arts Centre in the High Street where you can donate blood from 1pm until 3.30pm, or from 4.30pm until 7pm.

Heart patients get help closer to home

HEART patients waiting for a diagnosis are set to benefit from a quicker and more convenient service.

From this week, a new mobile laboratory will visit West Suffolk Hospital in Bury St Edmunds once a week for the next 12 months, giving patients who would otherwise have to travel to Papworth Hospital the chance to receive a diagnosis closer to home.

The laboratory is set up to carry out coronary angiography procedures, which involves inserting a tube in the patient and injecting them with a dye, which travels through the coronary arteries and into the heart. The passage of dye is followed using X-rays, which will pick up any blockages in the arteries. Clinicians can then determine the best treatment for patients to open up the artery and free the blockage. These procedures would take place at Papworth Hospital.

The service has been introduced thanks to a new partnership arrangement between West Suffolk Hospital NHS Trust and private company Cardinal InHealth.

Cathy Fuller, from diagnostic cardiology services, said: "In the past, patients needing this procedure had to travel to Papworth Hospital.

"It is going to be so much more convenient for them to be able to come to their local hospital instead - plus they'll also get their diagnosis quicker.

"We will be using the lab for a year and then looking very closely at the benefits it offers so that a decision can be taken about the best way to provide this service to patients in the future."

The mobile lab will visit the hospital every Tuesday and will operate next to Rowan House.

Dragons see red ...and white!

SOME fearsome dragons and brave warriors went along to a pre-school group as part of a St George's Day event. All 20 under fives at the Thurlow Pre-School group joined in the St George's Day celebration by dressing up as St George or the dragon, or wearing red and white. They had their faces painted red and white, drew flags and coloured in pictures of their national patron saint. Helen Frost, leader of the group, said most of the youngsters would not have known it was St George's Day without the special event. She said: "We tried to introduce them to it and they enjoyed themselves very much."

The group meets all day from Monday to Thursday, as well as Friday mornings, and has some places available. For more information, ring (01440) 783688.

Moving is a concern for elderly

Sir, My own mother was a resident of Horace Eves Close and was moved out a few months back as she needed more care than was available there (Sheltered homes to close for £2.5 million upgrade – Weekly News, April 24). I have to say I am glad she did as I think the way in which the old folk are being treated is disgusting. I know one elderly lady who has angina and has had to visit her doctor as the stress of all this has worsened her condition. It's all very well for Ms Mayhew to say every assistance is being given, but does she not realise that moving is one of the biggest causes of stress at any age, let alone when you're elderly. The £4,000-plus the residents have been offered as recompense is nothing for the uprooting and worry caused by such a move. It wasn't so long back that social services cut the day centre availability to the elderly was it? And then they cut the care given to the elderly at lunch time to 10 to 15 minutes (to heat a meal, wash up the breakfast items, empty commodes etc – heaven forbid if the elderly person needed extra care or was in distress). I hope the residents all stick together and refuse to move. Maybe Ms Mayhew and the rest of these people who make these decisions should realise that we are all heading towards old age, and also bear in mind the phrase "what goes around comes around".

Big night to celebrate end of the season

Sir, Calling all Ipswich Town fans in the Haverhill and surrounding areas. How would you like to come to our end-of-season meal and sit with Kevin Beattie and his wife, along with 78 FA Cup goal-scorer Roger Osborne and Radio Suffolk's Mark Murphy. It is hoped we will have one or two more of the 1978 Cup Final-winning side attend as well. On the night there will be a special presentation to The Beat, which is going to be very emotional as it is from Sir Bobby Robson, an honorary member of our club, along with a small raffle and auction. It's all happening at the Novotel Hotel, Ipswich, on Saturday, May 31. The cost is only £30 per ticket, which includes a three-course meal followed by coffee. If anyone is interested, please email me on itfc@fsmail.net It promises to be a night not to be missed and is open to everyone, but hurry as only a limited number of seats are available. Ipswich Town

Independent Supporters' Club is now becoming a popular club, both locally, nationwide and abroad, so come with us to this great night with The Beat!

£1,500 bundle of joy for local mums

YOUNG mums who meet together with their babies have received a cash boost of £1,500 from three local county councillors.

Bump and Grind sessions are held at the Burton Centre, next to Haverhill Library, each Friday between 10am and noon.

Cllr Phillip French went along to a recent meeting to hand over the cash from his Locality Budget. Fellow councillors Tim Marks and Karen Knight also chipped in cash from their budgets.

The money will allow members of the group to attend a weekend in Felixstowe in June.

Any mums interested in joining the group are welcome to go along on a Friday morning session to see what it has to offer.

Grants to help county turn green

CASH will be given to groups to encourage them to do more to combat climate change.

Suffolk County Council has announced a £600,000 fund to help voluntary and not-for-profit groups increase the amount of waste they recycle and reuse in the county.

The money will support groups which create employment opportunities, tackle social exclusion, improve skills and create volunteering opportunities by providing support for projects such as furniture and white goods reuse projects, community composting initiatives, wood recycling projects and community repainting schemes.

BY Damion Roberts

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Eddy Alcock, the council's portfolio holder for environment and waste management, said: "This is an opportunity for creative initiatives to make a difference to the environment and help divert waste from landfill, which is expensive and contributes to global warming."

Groups wanting to apply for funding from the reuse and recycling grant can do so through the Suffolk Single Gateway Application online at www.suffolk.gov.uk/BusinessAndConsumer/RegenerationAndCommunityDevelopment/Funding/SuffolkSingleGateway

The closing date for applications is May 30.

Students take out the trash

SIXTH formers have been gathering up rubbish as part of the Don't be a Tosser campaign. The students, from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Chalkstone Way, collected over 63 bags of rubbish from Haverhill in an hour.

Armed with picking sticks, gloves and bin bags the students learned about the health dangers of dumping litter, as part of the Suffolk-wide initiative to clean up the county's streets.

Year 12 student Mandy Haynes said: "It was good to do something that not only makes you feel good about yourself but rewards others as well."

Hall's bid for pool

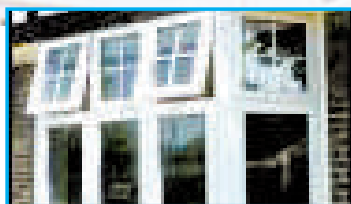

PLANS to build a swimming pool, pool house and a 2.7m-high chain link fence around a tennis court at Little Thurlow Hall, Little Thurlow, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Call for help to move birds

FACTORY workers who have been trying to unite lost peacocks with their owners urgently need help in moving them to a new home.

Two male peacocks appeared several weeks ago around the Ardex UK factory site off Homefield Road. Office worker Julie Cole has been feeding them and trying to find out where they come from.

Now workers whose cars have been damaged by the birds are threatening to destroy them unless they can be homed.

Julie has found a home for the birds at Great Yeldham, but urgently needs help to catch and transport them.

She needs someone with a very large cage so that the birds can be trapped with food and moved to their new home where they will have 11 acres to roam in.

Anyone who can help should contact Julie on 0781 3624237.

Stroll in the country

THE latest in a line of country walks takes place on Sunday. The Footpath and Hedge group will meet at the community centre in Kedington at 2pm and will drive to Wickhambrook where they will walk a range of footpaths, green lanes and minor roads. The walk will take in the brook, from which the village takes its name, and will later pass Badmondfield Hall, an old house rebuilt after a fire in 1995. All are welcome to join the group and car sharing is available. For more information call (01440) 708690.

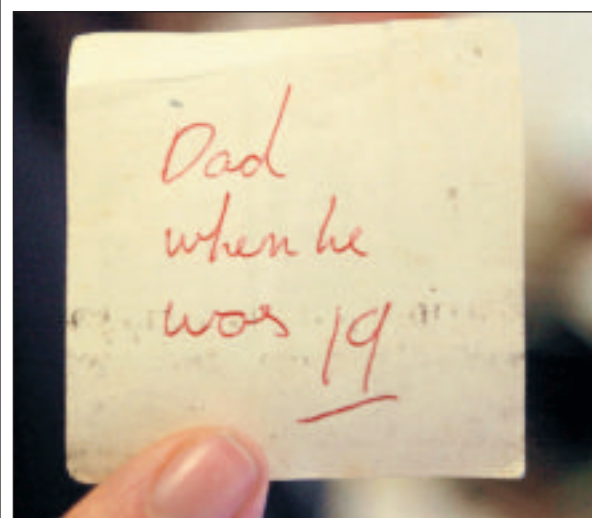

Conversion plans go in

A REVISED scheme to convert a pub into a home is the subject of a planning application to St Edmundsbury Borough Council. Plans for the former Plumbers Arms pub at Wickham Street, Denston, near Wickhambrook, also include a revised listed building application for internal and external alterations associated with the conversion to residential use, to include new window and door openings and a new staircase.

Tiny picture of soldier found

A WOMAN who found a tiny picture of a soldier standing to attention is hoping to reunite it with its owner. Michelle Hammond found the photograph on her drive in Helions Park Gardens, Haverhill, more than three weeks ago. It has "Dad when he was 19" written on the back. Last laughs

THE Jesterlarf Comedy Club at the Junction is putting on its last show before it breaks for the summer tomorrow. The headliner is Scouse funnyman Rob Rouse who has built a following with regular appearances on the Friday Night Project and Eight Out of Ten Cats. Also on the bill is one-liner maestro Dan Evans, streetwise gagsmith Marlon Davies and Irish compere Michael Legge. Tickets are £11 and the show starts at 8pm. To book call (01223) 511511.

Northern rock

Divas pull out but the Sixites roll in!

THE Haverhill Arts Centre has announced the cancellation of Divas of Country. It show was scheduled to appear on stage on Friday, May 9 at 8pm. It's a disappointment for the arts centre as the show looked very promising. But country fans will be pleased to hear that Hooked on Country, Sold on Sixties will be returning to the arts centre on Friday, July 4, a little consolation for missing out in May!

Centre staff are currently in the process of contacting everybody who has purchased tickets, but if they haven't managed to get in touch, give the box office a call on (01440) 714140 for a refund.

■ The arts centre will be closed on Bank Holiday Monday.
■ For more details about up-coming shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillarts-centre.co.uk

Modern art poses age-old questions

■ ARTISTIC DIFFERENCES . . . test friendships in Art, playing at the Arts Centre on Friday.

as part of the annual Bury St Edmunds Theatre Royal Community Tour, currently in its 10th year. Tickets are £9 and £7.50 concessions, from the box office on (01440) 714140.

Michael Onslow, who plays Serge, was very well received recently at the arts centre as Mr Nyukhin in the Evils of Tobacco and other Pinter and Chekhov shorts by Compass Theatre.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Subtle styling is Coupe's ace

THINK "coupe" and images of a low and slinky muscled thing on performance-enhancing drugs come to mind.

Yet BMW has always taken a more softly, softly approach with its 3 Series Coupe, which has never shared any body panels with its saloon counterpart, but may as well have for all the visual distinctions that this made.

The new model is different though, because it is so much more of a looker than the frumpy saloon. If you are keen to order one, then I recommend the M Sport specification as seen here, which adds visual spice thanks to a body styling package, as well as dynamic verve from lowered sports suspension. Other M Sport goodies include 18-inch light alloy wheels, while inside are "M" tagged doorsills, alcantara-shod sports seats, a tactile short shift gearlever and a chunky steering wheel, both emblazoned with that magical "M" moniker.

All of this sporting pretension feels a little ill at ease in a car powered by a 2-litre diesel engine, and this sense of indiscretion

FIRST DRIVE

A 3 Series with style

lingers once you have slotted the key into the dash and then been compelled to press a separate starter button to fire things up. I mean please, in a diesel?

But first impressions can be quiet wrong. Take the Coupé for a drive and the M Sport labels and kit make much more sense. Power goes where it should, to the rear wheels, steering is excellent, and body control is outstanding. The suspension upgrades mean the ride height is lower by 15mm and progress is a little firm, but one of the most amazing things about this car is how well damped it feels. The resulting ride is surprisingly comfortable, and driving impressions are top notch, thanks to the talented chassis, which offers the most advanced suspension design in its class. Lift the bonnet and you will see how well set back the engine is, which no doubt contributes to the perfect 50:50 front/rear weight distribution.

■ THE 3 SERIES COUPE . . . perfectly balanced driving dynamics.

Although the 2-litre unit is the smallest diesel available in the Coupé range, it is a real testament to BMW's engine-making brilliance, offering an unusually high power output, oodles of torque, and impressively low CO2 emissions. In my care it averaged 45mpg.

The only real niggle is a gearbox that is obstructive, make changing through the gears a tad slow.

BASICALLY...

Understated styling means this Coupe doesn't need to shout about its attributes. Take it for a spin, however, and you will realise that there is a subterranean depth of ability waiting to be tapped into.

Audi's Q5 set to battle rivals

SMART, swish, and sporty, the new Audi Q5 is destined to do a lot more than add to the crush in the burgeoning family sports utility-crossover vehicle sectors.

Audi is very much the badge of the moment, with sales and brand loyalty on the up and still a long way off being on the crest of the wave.

The Q5's flowing lines and lower, more sporting, stance should quickly attract a strong following when it goes on sale in Britain later this year, and could even dent the market aspirations of the firm's new A4 range – the Q5's pricing won't be far removed from that of its popular saloon sibling.

One rival that will be watching its back when the Q5 arrives is the current crossover market leader, the Nissan Qashqai, whose seven-seater version, the Qashqai+2 arrives in the UK in October.

The Qashqai+2, at 4.52 metres long, is closer to the five-door Q5's dimensions, which stretches a little more to 4.63 metres in length.

Yet the new Audi has the longest wheelbase – at 2.81 metres – in this segment, which means a roomy cabin, albeit for only five adults. The Q5's seats are designed to be flexible, especially at the rear, where the backrests are angle-adjustable and easy to fold down via a remote release lever in the boot.

The cargo space itself has a second under-floor storage area, allowing basic load space to first expand to 540 litres before a flattening of the rear seats ups that to 1,560 litres.

Longer cargo can be accommodated by fitting options such as a slide-forward rear bench seat, and a front passenger seat with folding backrest.

The Audi Q5 will initially arrive with three engines, one 2.0-litre turbo petrol unit, and 2.0 and 3.0-litre turbo diesel engine choices. But that powerplant line-up could quickly change – Audi is noted for adding more powerful motors once demand for a range is established.

The four-cylinder 2.0-litre TFSI petrol unit sprints from 0 to 62mph in 7.2 seconds, can touch 138mph, and averages

■ PRACTICAL . . . Audi's crossover has enough practical solutions to cope with a family and safety in legendary Quattro system.

33.2mpg on the official combined cycle.

The refined 2.0-litre turbo diesel has a combined cycle fuel consumption of 42.1mpg, can reach 62mph from standing in 9.5 seconds, and has a top speed of 126.76 mph.

The most powerful engine in the line-up, the 3.0-litre TDI, is a V6 diesel that delivers 237bhp to take the Audi Q5 from 0 to 62mph in 6.5 seconds, before accelerating away to a top speed of 139mph. The V6's thirst equates to a reasonable 36.6mpg on the combined cycle.

Six-speed manual and seven-speed automatic transmissions will be available, and the Q5 gets Audi's famed quattro four-wheel drive system as standard.

In normal conditions, 60 per cent of the engine power goes to the rear wheels for sporting, rear-focused driving enjoyment, but the transfer box can deliver up to 65 per cent of the power to the front axle, and a maximum of 85 per cent to the rear axle, when there is a demand for it.

Hi-tech fittings and options include cruise control, hill descent control, a parking system with rear-view camera, a lane departure warning system, and Audi's side assist, which warns of hazards when changing lanes.

Other buy-in items include tyre pressure monitoring, a panoramic glass sunroof with tilting function, triple-zone climate control, sun blinds for the rear side windows, adaptive cornering lights, and a powered, push-button tailgate as seen on the firm's bigger Q7 4x4.

DIY servicing motorists are a dying breed

MEN no longer trust their DIY motor mechanic skills and are becoming DIFMs (Do It For Me) instead, says a survey.

Only about 14 per cent of male drivers attempt to take care of under-the-bonnet problems, the Castrol poll found.

Rather than doing it themselves, three in four men are now relying on a professional for even the most basic car maintenance, the survey of 1,360 people showed.

With women, the number prepared to go down the DIY road is even smaller, with 87 per cent of female motorists seeking professional help or asking their partners to do their car maintenance.

The survey also found that more than half of motorists are unsure if they are using the right oil for their car.

Rob Stroud of Castrol said: "It seems that less and less modern-day males are able to look after their vehicles themselves."

"While past generations took pride in their cars and spent hours keeping them in tip-top condition, men appear more inclined now to pop to the garage or visit a drive-through car wash."

"Basic car maintenance, such as topping up the oil, can be done at home. However, it's essential that you know what you are doing and are using the right products and equipment. Choosing the right oil for your car can be confusing."

Insignia is Vauxhall's Mondeo challenger

VAUXHALL has released pictures of its latest mid-sized saloon, the Insignia.

For those who don't recognise the name or see the significance of this car, the Insignia is the replacement for the Vectra, one of the highest selling cars in the UK but one that has long been in the shadow of Ford's Mondeo.

Far sleeker and much more stylish than the current family saloon from Vauxhall, the Luton based company has chosen a new name for the model which will have its debut at the British Motor Show this July.

The Vauxhall is the latest in a line of new saloons that are trying to claim back some sales from the prestige markets bossed by BMW's 3 Series, the Audi A4 and Mercedes' C-Class. In recent history, large numbers of sales have been lost in the sector best known as the "rep-mobile" model. Ford's Mondeo, the Honda Accord, Mazda's 6 and Citroen's C5 are all, or are soon to be, on sale and all the newer models have raised the game significantly. The Insignia is the latest model coming to battle and Vauxhall intend to go the same way as the aforementioned mid-sized saloons and aim upmarket.

The distinction between family saloon and small-executive saloon is getting increasingly blurred and the Insignia's exterior styling clearly aspires to be classier than the Vectra. The interior too is likely to have all the bells and whistles to tempt back buyers to Vauxhall's traditional family car.

Interestingly, it has already been announced that a four-wheel drive model or two is set for production and, along with the VXR sub-brand, it doesn't stretch the imagination too far to see an equivalent of a BMW M3 in the future.

More details and views of the interior will be released closer to launch.

■ VAUXHALL INSIGNIA... a key new model for the Luton manufacturer and the company has high hopes.

25 – the perfect age to pass driving test

■ WHEN DID YOU LEARN TO DRIVE? ... men pass earlier.

THE best age to pass the driving test is 25, according to research figures out this week.

Those who pass at 25 have the best balance of low motoring convictions and low accident rates, said insurance company Admiral.

It added that the younger you are when you pass your test, the more likely you are to have a motoring conviction in the first five years of motoring.

Also, those who do not pass until they are a little older tend to have the worst motoring records as they are more likely to have had an accident and made an insurance claim by the time they throw away their L-plates.

Based on data from more than a million motorists, the Admiral figures showed that men pass their driving test at a younger age than women, with 44 per cent of them passing before they are 19, compared with 37 per cent of women.

As many as 59 per cent of men, but just 46 per cent of women, pass their driving test the first time, while seven per cent of women take more than three attempts to pass their test compared with four per cent of men.

Overall, 18 is the most common age to pass the test, with 23 per cent of motorists doing so. Only 39 per cent reach the age of 21 before they pass their test.

Motorists in Wimborne, Dorset, pass at the lowest average age – 19.4 years.

They are followed by motorists in Peterhead, Scotland, and the Bitton and Warmley areas of Bristol.

The area with the oldest average age for people passing their test is Maida Vale in north west London, with a figure of 21.9 years. This is followed by the London areas of Peckham and Stoke Newington, with the top 20 areas of the UK with the highest average age for passing the driving test all being in London.

Admiral managing director Sue Longthorn said: "Our research shows that the age you pass your driving test does indeed affect your driving record. If you pass your test when you are 17 or 18 there is a higher probability that you will have a conviction for a motoring offence such as speeding or careless driving.

"Conversely, the older you are when you pass your test, there is a much higher probability that you will have an accident at some time. This could be because people who pass at an older age have failed their driving test a number of times, and could therefore be weaker drivers."

■ VOLVO C70... now with more gadgets.

Generous kit for C70

THE stylish Volvo C70 is two cars in one; a four-seater coupe one minute, in just 30 seconds it can turn into a striking convertible thanks to its folding hard-top.

The image that comes with a convertible – great for the fast approaching summer days – combined with the legendary Volvo safety standards create a good overall vehicle. Add in an excellent level of equipment and it becomes a very tempting package. Volvo has now added its RTI navigation system and Keyless Drive to the C70 for no extra cost.

The RTI navigation system features satnav combined with TMC. Traffic management control works alongside the satellite navigation to spot and direct you around any incidents ahead, either in the UK or Europe.

The other addition, Keyless Drive, uses technology to recognise when your are near the vehicle, lock/unlock it for you and let you start the car, without ever touching the key.

The C70 is powered by a range of two diesels and two petrols ranging from a 2.0-litre diesel to the flagship turbocharged T5.

Prices for the Volvo C70 start from £25,750 for the 2.4i S model which, along with the complimentary RTI and Keyless Drive, offers a high level of standard equipment including climate control, 16-inch alloys and cruise control.

■ CATERHAMS... great fun.

Dads in Caterhams

GIVE your Dad a Father's Day gift to remember by spending the day burning rubber sideways in a Caterham Seven.

The one-day Caterham Driving Experience (CDX) courses will put Dad behind the wheel of the legendary Caterham Seven where he'll be taught how to push the British sportscar to its limits in a relaxed and safe environment.

CDX days aren't just for wannabe racers, they appeal to anybody with a driving licence and a sense of fun! What could be better than thrashing somebody else's sportscar for the day with no guilty conscience?

Participants can mimic an F1 driver's tyre smoking antics through a Slalom or Drift course and get taught to use the rear wheels to steer, powersliding through the assembled bends and learning tricks like doing a doughnut.

At the end of the day, a test around a timed course adds a little friendly competition to the event. Once the tyre smoke settles on what will be a memorable day, your Dad will be left with a certificate, new skills and possibly a trophy but certainly a broad smile across his face.

Days run throughout the year at venues like Brands Hatch, Cadwell Park, Castle Combe, Elvington, Oulton Park and Silverstone. Vouchers cost from £99 to £399 from www.caterham.co.uk or by calling (01883) 333700.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

■ LINE-UPS . . . the Grampian Gunners Lads and Dads face the camera.

CP

Dads shoot down young Guns

GRAMPIAN Gunners U14 played their dads in a special match to round off the season.

The parents were 3-0 up before a late rally saw the boys come close to snatching a draw.

As fitness, or lack of it, started to show the Dads came under increasing pressure, but they held out to win 4-3.

Before the match, a sponsored penalty shootout was held to raise money for a new kit.

Grampian U14 manager Simon Youngs, who thanked Chris Emmerson for his goalkeeping duties and referee Greg Street, said: "It was a bit of fun at the end of a hard season and everyone enjoyed it."

"It may be the last time the Dads win, but we will live on it for 12 months anyway."

Hawks' hopes end as errors take a hold

Hundon Hawks U15 1 Mildenhall U15 2

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 15C

TWO minutes of madness at the start of the match cost Hawks their chance of finishing runners-up in their league.

Hawks, who had conceded only 20 goals all season, found themselves 2-0 down after two minutes against league winners Mildenhall, following some woeful defending.

It proved to be terminal to Hawks hopes of clinching the second spot, as they were unable to recover.

Hawks did pull a goal back before half time through Harry Middleditch and dominated the game for long periods, creating numerous chances which were not taken.

More bad news for Hawks was the injury to full-back Ben Felton, who requires knee surgery after twisting awkwardly early in the game.

Lakenheath U11 2 West Watting U11 3

WRATTING took the lead when Bush calmly placed the ball into the back of the net.

They went 2-0 up when Lambert sprung the offside trap just before the break.

The second half started as the first with Watting attacking well, Lakenheath pulled a goal back.

After then had an effort cleared off the line for Watting before Stevenson volleyed them into a two-goal lead.

Lakenheath won a succession of corners and finally reduced the arrears to leave the final score on 3-2.

Watting player of the match accolades went to George Sheath and Harvey Scotton.

Great Bardfield U10 1 Thurlow U10 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10D

A RARE away victory for Thurlow saw Daniel Passmore and Matthew Rose notch goals their goals in a hard-fought contest.

Thurlow came from behind to secure a precious win against a good Bardfield side.

Despite keeper Jesse Luff's heroics, Thurlow went behind before half time.

In the second half, a long-range free kick from Rose flew into the net to level the scores.

Shortly after, man-of-the-match Passmore calmly scored Thurlow's winner.

Whittlesford Warriors U11 3 Thurlow U11 4

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

ALTHOUGH the early play was mostly in the Whittlesford half, a quick break and fine finish put the home team one up.

The equaliser came when Williamson's cross was turned in by a Whittlesford defender.

The score remained level until the break, but Whittlesford regained the lead.

Thurlow responded immediately with Williamson receiving a pass from Bates, who shot into the roof of the net.

Whittlesford continued to press and a fine finish resulted in their third goal. Two excellent headed goals from man-of-the-match Connor Goodings and Marsh finally won the day for Thurlow.

Whittlesford Warriors U10 1 West Watting U10 Reds 5

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10D

A DELAYED kick-off saw Watting's pre-match routine disrupted, which affected their usual passing game.

They struggled to find any real rhythm, but did lead at half time through an Alex Carter strike.

The second half saw the visitors lift their play and some fine passing started to open up the home defence.

After five minutes, Carter bagged his second to double the lead.

The next score went the way of the home team with a spectacular long-range own goal.

The next few minutes saw Watting on the back foot, as Whittlesford started to grow in confidence.

Carter again provided the breathing space, firing home to grab his 15th hat-trick of the season.

Watting now relaxed and quick goals from Eames and Jenkinson put a more realistic look to the scoreline.

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Haverhill to take on the world

HAVERHILL Cricket Club are preparing for the return of the international star players of Lashings World XI.

The all-star line-up will be back for a repeat of last year's event, which will take place on Thursday, August 21, at the Manor Road Ground.

Haverhill cricketers will be taking on the World XI team to raise funds for the club's youth coaching programme.

Last year's event, although badly affected by the weather, still managed to raise sufficient funds to help build a much-needed practice net.

This new facility is due to be completed and in use by the start of the new season.

Lashings' line-up reads like the who's who of world cricket, with legends such as Richie Richardson, Alvin Kallicharran and Phil Defreitas, alongside current stars such as Chris Cairns, Rashid Latif, Dinesh Mongia and Marvan Atapattu.

Although this may seem an impossible challenge for the Haverhill team, the game does promise a day of fun for all involved.

Jon Watkins, Haverhill player and groundsman, said: "This will be a great occasion, not only for the club and the players, but also for the spectators, who are lucky enough to get to see the match."

"Hopefully, the weather will be kinder to us this year and we will get to see the Lashings Players in better conditions."

The aim of the day is not only to enjoy quality cricket, but also to raise money to provide better coaching facilities for the club's youth academy. Haverhill only started the youth section two years ago, but had 100 players, aged seven to 15, sign on last year and expect this number to increase to 120 this coming season.

The club expects to have at least four youth-team players representing Haverhill at county level during the coming season.

Haverhill are making provision for corporate hospitality at the event, offering local and national businesses the chance to meet the cricketing superstars and even have one join you for lunch on your table.

If you are interested in taking a table, visit www.haverhillcricketclub.co.uk or call Greg Street on 07885 336080.

England ace Stewart aids Horseheath

GARY Ellis wants to get revenge when Horseheath travel to Upwood in the second round of the npower Village Cup – and will have Alec Stewart and Dean Headley to help him.

The two former England internationals have been invited to the match on Sunday by the sponsors to offer tips and advice to the teams.

And the Horseheath skipper is determined to win the clash after Upwood defeated his side in a bowl-out in last season's Cambridgeshire and Norfolk

Area semi-final. Ellis said: "Alec Stewart and Dean Headley are both household names and it will be an honour to be mentored and coached by them."

"They're going to do a motivational talk and then talk to us about tossing up and looking at the wicket, as well as doing a few training exercises with us."

"And it would be nice to get a bit of revenge against Upwood as we lost a bowl-out last season on a very wet pitch."

■ Adie Westley was the pick of the Weston Colville bowlers with three wickets, but the captain will be left wondering how his side did not beat Yaxley, who managed to earn a draw in Saturday's Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League, Division Two match.

Colville looked adequately placed to win the match after they had posted a total of 200 for 8 thanks to good knocks from Trevor Westley and Arvid Gunderson (both 35) then had Yaxley reeling at 43 for 6 – but the home side clung on for 84 for 7.

Jamie's effort in vain for Rovers

Haverhill Rovers 2
Dereham Town 3

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

JAMIE Thurlbourne's two goals counted for nothing as Haverhill let a 2-1 lead slip against Dereham and lost for the second time in a week in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division.

The midfielder put the hosts ahead after five minutes of Saturday's match at Hamley Croft when his deflected drive deceived the visiting goalkeeper and flew into the bottom corner.

It was almost 2-0 soon after as Sam Green collected Joe Harvey's chipped pass, but the attacker fired wide of the upright.

Dereham's goalkeeper was ■ DOUBLE UP . . . two-goal Jamie Thurlbourne.

penalised for picking up a backpass and, from the free-kick, Thurlbourne flashed a shot past the post.

With 17 minutes on the clock, the hosts equalised when a midfielder collected the ball and gave Jamie Smith no chance with a precise finish.

Green went close to restoring his team's lead on the half hour mark before Thurlbourne did just that following a jinking run down the wing after the interval.

But Green missed a glorious chance to seal the win after 51 minutes when he somehow failed to put the ball in the net from barely a yard out.

And the visitors made him pay as they restored parity and stole the points from the penalty spot after Gareth Thomas was penalised for a foul in the box.

The result means Haverhill are currently lying in ninth place in the league table, ahead of their final game of the season at Leiston on Saturday.

■ HAVERHILL Rovers reserves completed their league campaign with a 2-2 draw with Long Melford. Several key players were rested for this game with two cup finals in four days coming up.

Rovers dominated the first half during which the scoring was opened by a good headed finish from captain Ben Cowling.

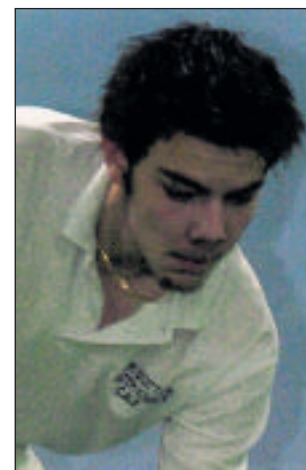

Before half time, some poor defending was punished by a Melford equaliser.

Melford scored on the counter-attack with 20 minutes remaining.

This resulted in Haverhill changing their system, which was rewarded with an equaliser in the 88th minute with another good finish from Cowling.

Haverhill now go into their two finals, the first being at Bury Town FC tomorrow night (Friday) when they face Ipswich Wanderers in the county cup, 7.45pm.

BOWLS

■ LIAM BOTTEN . . . drew a blank at the EBF finals.

Botten right out of national luck

HAVERHILL bowler Liam Botten missed out on two fronts when he took part in the English Bowling Federation Championships at Newark, Nottinghamshire. Botten, the North Essex Federation champion, scraped past Buckden's Jamie Price 21-20 in the last eight of the men's under-25 singles, but went on to go down narrowly 21-19 to Northamptonshire's T Morton in the semi-finals. He was also knocked out in the quarter-finals of the men's singles 21-10 by A Clipston of Derbyshire. It came after he had beaten Durham bowler I McIntosh 21-9 in the first round.

Rampant Bull on the charge

HAVERHILL Bull still put on a highly-polished display against Border Athletic to progress to the semi-finals of the Sudbury & Haverhill Referees Association Charity Shield. The result helped compensate for Bull's disappointment in losing their Treadfirst Sudbury & District Sunday League Division One KO Cup Final and being pipped to the Division One title by Border. Bull goals in their 3-0 victory came from James Shinn, Marc Abbott and Craig Cutts and the result prepares them for the Treadfirst Challenge Cup final on Sunday. Bull take on Division Two side Northcroft at AFC Sudbury, 2.30pm. Woodlands are on the verge of winning their league championship for the second consecutive year, after beating Glemsford & Cavendish 4-2. Woodland's goals came from Paul Hunt (2), Paul Bartlett, following an excellent cross from Bradley Cocks, who also assisted the goal for Kier Joyce from a free kick. A win this weekend for Woodlands at Walsingham would make them impossible to catch. Grampian Sunday are also on the verge of winning their league championship after a resounding victory over Boxford Rovers 12-2. Danny Hill scored eight of Grampian's goals, bringing his tally to 67 for the season. Jon Welsh and Matthew Elmer scored two each to wrap up the victory. In the Division Two Knockout Cup final, Black Horse Hammers beat Horse & Groom 2-1. In Division Two, Thurlow got their first win since October with a 4-2 victory over Super Shooters. On the heels of their triumph in the Division One KO Cup final the previous week, Herbert Lions lost their Division Five game 2-0 to leaders Glemsford SC.
